THE MISSNER GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF PROPERTY/ASSET MANAGEMENT

(Skokie, Illinois) – The Missner Group recently announced that the long-time Vice President of Property and Asset Management, Dennis Kosko has retired and that industry veteran, Gina L. Galante will assume the role.

An integral part of the team for many years, Kosko was responsible for the leasing and management of the firm's office and industrial real estate portfolio. He spent more than twenty years in the commercial real estate industry and several years prior to that in the financial services sector.

“We are going to miss his distinct candor and relentless work ethic,” said Barry Missner, Principal of The Missner Group. “However, we want to thank Dennis for his years of service, friendship and loyalty and wish him nothing but the utmost fulfillment in this next exciting stage of his life.”

The Missner Group has filled the vacated role with new team member, Gina Galante. Galante is a 20-year industry veteran who brings substantial property management and leasing experience to her new position. She will coordinate the leasing efforts for the firm's more than two million square feet of properties with third party brokerage firms.

“With Gina's professional experience and exceptional interpersonal skills we are confident that the leadership transition will be effortless,” added Missner. “She brings a great deal of expertise and determination to the table which will be valuable to our team as well as our clients.”

Prior to joining The Missner Group, Galante was a sole practitioner offering strategic and analytical consulting services for clients in the institutional and corporate real estate industries. Clients relied upon Ms. Galante for services including asset management, property management, tenant representation, due diligence coordination, leasing support and staff supervision. Her client roster included InSite Real Estate Services, US Cellular Corporation and Colliers Bennett & Kahnweiler.

Galante also served as a property manager for Colliers, Bennett & Kahnweiler where she managed the Walton Street Capital portfolio totaling 2.8 million square feet in suburban Chicago and Tampa, Florida, and for AMLI Commercial Property Trust where she managed over 2,000,000 square feet of premier industrial parks. Prior to her career in commercial real estate, Ms. Galante oversaw 100 branches of TCF Bank in Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana.

The Missner Group, headquartered in Skokie, Illinois, provides comprehensive and integrated real estate development and construction services throughout the Chicagoland and Midwestern markets. The firm, established in 1945, has completed more than $800 million in construction projects, and has orchestrated the development of more than six million square feet of commercial and industrial real estate.
