THE MISSNER GROUP ANNOUNCES THE CONSTRUCTION OF NEW AUTO PARTS FACILITY IN CHICAGO

(Skokie, Illinois) – The Missner Group is pleased to announce the development of a new facility for Again Auto Parts in Chicago.

Located at 1300-1330 N. Kostner Avenue in Chicago, The Missner Group is the general contractor for the new Again Auto Parts retail facility . The development will serve as the location for the new auto parts recycling business. Construction of the 8.9-acre project is currently underway and scheduled for completion in the Spring of 2010.

“My family is pleased to announce the opening of another recycling business - Again Auto Parts,” said Joel Fink, owner of the new business. “We have always been cognizant of the need to conserve the world's resources, which we have helped do for 90 years. We are excited to do our part to make Chicago the World's greenest city. We have selected the Missner Group because of its long tradition of quality and integrity.”

Barry Missner is the principal overseeing the project on behalf of The Missner Group and Drue Stoehr is the firm’s project manager. Cornerstone Architects is providing the architectural services.

The Missner Group, headquartered in Skokie, Illinois, provides comprehensive and integrated real estate development and construction services throughout the Chicagoland and Midwestern markets. The firm, established in 1945, has completed more than $800 million in construction projects, and has orchestrated the development of more than four million square feet of commercial and industrial real estate.
